world cup cricket 2007

Posted by ellawilson - 2007/03/13 05:58

No more time to start world cup cricket 2007 and the cricket lovers are waiting for it with enthusiasm ,every one know that in cricket history world cup is the biggest war among 16 countries , all country perform well to win the world cup but result will same , only perfect team will be winner.

If we look at the world cup history we see that Australia has won world cup two times continuously and this is time to make hat-trick, if aus win this world cup then it will be the new record in cricket world. Because West Indies has all ready won world cup two times continuously.

So, let see what will be result; does Australia will make new history in cricket world? Or some one going to break Australian cricket dream?
